

Please do not weaken NJ's "Do Not Call" ruling. These telemarkets will be calling all day long and it's so annoying, especially because they won't take no for an answer and keep persisting. Please keep it the way that it is.